

Congratulations to both Matthew and Jonathan Perry for completing their Tandem flights with us. Their dad David had originally booked himself in for a taster day but the wind was just a little strong so he chose instead to sacrifice his day for two tandems for his boys. What a top dad.

However Dave has since completed his taster day with us and is totally hooked; look out for the perry family in the skies around Wiltshire soon.

{youtube}8QiDsFRtpA4{/youtube}