

Cloudbase managed to snatch another little weather window this morning. After the fog had lifted it was flyable for about 90 mins, I cant remember milk hill so busy on a week day in the winter.

Congratulations to Mike Stone who passed his CP today, he joins the ever growing cloudbase possie. Well done mate.

Below is a picture of half the wings that were out today.

